

Visual Arts Approach

"Here is my secret. It's quite simple: One sees clearly only with the heart. Anything essential is invisible to the eyes.", states the fox in Antoine de Saint-Exupéry's 'The Little Prince'. Even though this quote may have been commercially exploited many times since its release, today more than ever, it still remains applicable. In respect of its key message, my artistic projects take a similar approach: The verification of authenticity.

In my works I mainly examine the interplay between emotions and facts, often using analogies from nature or plain lines and shapes. Each of my visualizations is intuitively created and inspired by an observation or a situation in life that appears to be inconsistent at this point. Its quintessence emerges subsequently by review, memory, and logic. Regarding this subject, the style of my overall portfolio including ink works, photographs, books, digital collages, and art prints is subtle, delicate, and graphic.
